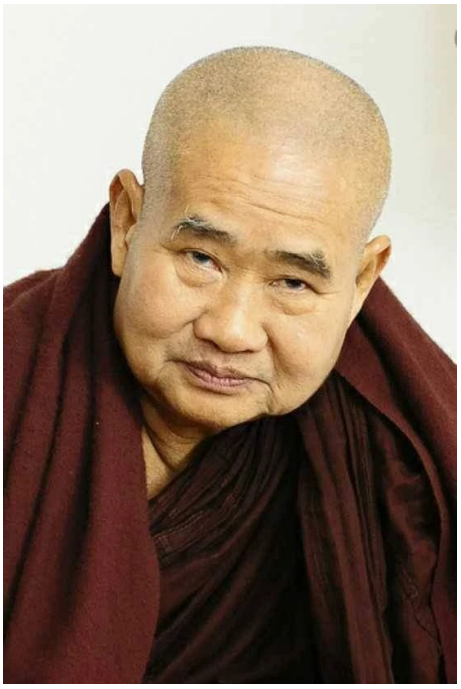
The Most Venerable Pa-Auk Tawya Sayadaw Bhaddanta Āciṇṇa



Born in 1934, the Sayadaw was ordained as a novice monk (sāmaṇera) at age ten. At age twenty, the Sayadaw received higher ordination as a bhikkhu. He continued his studies of Pāḷi Texts under learned elder monks, and passed the Dhammacariya examinations at age twenty two.

In 1981, the Sayadaw became the Abbot of Pa- Auk Forest Monastery, at the invitation of Venerable Aggapañña (the previous Abbot). Since 1983, both monastics and laity have been coming to study and practise meditation under the Sayadaw.

In 1997, the Sayadaw published his magnum opus, a massive five volume work titled “The Practice that Leads to Nibbāna”, explaining the entire course of teaching in detail and supported by copious quotations from the Pāḷi Texts. It is currently available only in Burmese and Sinhalese.

In public recognition of his achievements, the government of Myanmar bestowed upon him the title "Agga Mahā Kammaṭṭhānācariya", which means "Most Highly Respected Meditation Teacher" in 1999.

In 2009, the Sayadaw was bestowed the title of "Shwekyin Nikāya Rattaññūmahānāyaka" at the 17th Shwekyin Nikāya Saṅgha Conferencce in Myanmar.
